I give this true and voluntary statement and make the following facts known of my own free will:

On 1/18/2012 our customer care rep received a call from a customer named Dina Yonsey following upon a delivery date. She did receive the customer care rep then search in our system for the invoices, however no invoice(s) were located found (4729370 & 4730830). The customer then personally came into our Secaucus location and provided us with two invoices demanding answers this occurred on the same date 1/18/2012 at about 8:10pm. Jerry Cook, District Sales contacted Mr. & Mrs. Yonsey to arrange a meeting which was scheduled on 1/19/2012 @ 7:00pm at our Secaucus location. At this meeting we learned Mr. Mohammed Marston had conducted a cash transaction with Mrs. Yonsey on 1/2/2012 on that date she handed him $500.00 in cash then on 1/7/2012 Mr. & Mrs. Yonsey came back into the store and handed Mr. Marston $3,069.40 to complete their payment and where told he "Mr. Marston" will call them with a delivery date, which did not happen. Furthermore, Mr. Yonsey then told us Mr. Marston reached out them to arrange a meeting in order for him to return their money. Mr. Yonsey told him why don't you give the money to Anthony Funnatale, which Mr. Marston replied "I don't want to deal with them, We satisfied the customer's complaint by delivering the pieces on factious invoices Mr. Marston created then deleted out of the system. Mr. & Mrs. Yonsey then filed a complaint also with the Secaucus Police Department.
